

Camas

A community week for students on the island of Mull, Scotland, Mon 1st June - Sat 6th June 2020 with members of the Grassmarket Community

The University of Edinburgh is a charitable body, registered in Scotland SC005336.

This week will bring together students of Edinburgh University with members of the Grassmarket Community (a city centre community supporting vulnerable citizens) to experience a week together at the Camas Centre on Mull which is one of the island centres of the Iona Community. We hope particularly to engage students who are interested in the social care area who want to learn from and listen to members of the Grassmarket community.

The shared week would involve: some physical work together e.g. gardening, painting, the sharing of stories, some environmental education related to place, and enjoying the beautiful island.

The ethos at Camas, of community building across difference and concern for sustainable living, sits easily together with the ethos of the Grassmarket community which aims to provide support to vulnerable citizens through community and the ethos of the Chaplaincy which encourages diversity and inclusion.

The following link will show you film footage of what is involved: <https://youtu.be/q-lI6Ck-SN0>

This is an opportunity for students of Edinburgh University and members of the Grassmarket community to engage in a mutually enriching experience.

Time Mon 1st June – Sat 6th June 2020

Cost £50 for the week (heavily subsidised) plus travel there and back

If you are interested please write 200 words to Ali Newell by 5pm Friday 3rd April 2020 ali.newell@ed.ac.uk on why you would like to come on this week and include your name, university email address, mobile no, and year and subject of study at Edinburgh University

www.ed.ac.uk/chaplaincy

